

RUBEN FELDMAN

PRODUCER

Electronic musician, drummer, singer, and content creator, Ruben's blend of production and performance skills has lead to his unique approach to music as well as the audio industry. His passion for music stems from a deep love of technology as a creative tool, as well as over a decade of playing drums.

Professional Experience

While studying audio, Ruben has worked with plugin companies including Lunacy Audio and Future Audio Workshop creating promotional content for their products. He has also worked with ICTUS Audio creating original music for an unreleased video game

Berklee Hit Factory

Started in Fall 2024, Ruben is a founding member of Berklee's Hit Factory Club, responsible for the organization and success of weekly songwriting sessions, producing high-quality demos in the pop genre for pitching to major labels and artists.

YouTube Channel

Beginning in 2021, Ruben started the Ghostplayer brand through YouTube, posting production tutorials, plugin reviews, and sound design content. Through YouTube and Instagram Ruben promotes original sample and preset packs, which total over 400 downloads.
